

Queen Mary
University of London

Women Who Soar

An Aerospace Engineering competition for girls in Year 12

Win prizes worth up to £100 while learning about the exciting subject of Aerospace Engineering

Meet women working in Aerospace Engineering - undergraduate students, researchers and industry professionals

Gain hands-on-experience with world-class facilities including flight simulators, wind-tunnels and workshops

Strengthen your university application

Competition opens 27th March

